Biography

TINA M. ARRONIS Of Counsel

Advising clients in the areas of estate and gift tax planning and administration, Tina Arronis partners with her clients and their families, helping them to achieve their goals. Having managed estates as large as $200 million, she leads them through the entire planning, drafting and administration process handling a wide variety of issues including tax matters, family business succession matters, real estate, guardianship and Medicare/Medicaid matters. Tina also prepares both federal and state estate and gift tax returns, and manages estate audits.

In addition to her estate practice, Tina represents clients on general business transactions, business purchase and sale transactions, and lease, sale and purchase transactions of real estate.

Tina is a member of the Chicago and Illinois Bar Associations. She served as a Special Projects Coordinator on the Federal Tax Committee of the Chicago Bar Association as well as Chairperson of their Estate and Gift Tax Committee.

A volunteer for those needing an advocate, Tina currently acts as a Guardian Ad Litem for Children in Florida. In that role, she advocates for the needs of abused and neglected children with the goal of putting families back together. Formerly, she served as Vice President of the Volunteer Network for Bank of America, N.A., and was a Volunteer Attorney for the Center for Disability and Elder Law, where she represented low income and elderly disabled clients on guardianship, housing and debt matters.
