Byron L. Faermark

Partner

A seasoned practitioner for over three decades, Byron Faermark concentrates his practice on the advanced planning needs of business owners, entrepreneurs, and professionals. Byron combines the disciplines of estate planning, business law, asset protection and income tax planning to provide comprehensive solutions to business structuring, succession planning, exit strategies and estate structuring.

Partnering with his clients to determine their best options, Byron's experience includes representing estates in excess of 100 million in net worth, assisting business owners with succession plans, counseling family members with diverse interests in reaching terms and agreements acceptable to all parties. He also serves as counsel to many small and medium sized businesses.

In addition to his estate planning and business practice, Byron represents and advises clients in virtually all aspects of real estate transactions. Over the past thirty years, he has represented parties in over one billion dollars of transactions involving the acquisition, disposition, leasing, development, management and financing of commercial real estate, including loan workouts and Tax Increment Financing districts.

Prior to founding Faermark & Williams, he was an Assistant State's Attorney in the Civil Division for DuPage County. His responsibilities included representation of the DuPage Zoning Department, Building Department, County Treasurer, Supervisor of Assessments, and counsel to the DuPage County Board..
